Six short tales of the Adam Seville Studio, a small place in New York that holds private showings, by invitation only, of the latest work by the artist. Not satisfied with the typical materials used in the art world, Adam incorporates living men into his pieces. It's interactive, sensual work that makes the model wonder if they are a permanent part of the exhibit. Connor Jackson delivers himself to the studio for a project Adam titles "Silver Skin." That coloring is just temporary. Isn't it? Connor experiences bondage like nothing he ever has before for Adam's project called "Canvas." And once you're helpless, even something like breathing can be taken out of your hands... For "Statuary," Adam enlists Kip to literally be joined with Connor. Adam proves that when it comes to human statues, two is better than one. Connor is put into over-the-top bondage for "The Cube." This time though, he's not just kept on the studio floor. Adam takes him to his upstairs bedroom where things get a kinky start. For Adam's project "The Burrito," Kip and Connor are made one again with bondage and breath control that takes them to the edge of pleasure and fear. In the finale, Connor is now living with a listless Adam who seems to have lost his passion for art. Then Adam realizes what he needs is one last exhibit "Wired" - with himself as the model and Connor as the artist. Enjoy these gay adult tales of sex, bondage, art, peril play, encasement, breath control, and romance.

"Between Two Cultures, by Wen C. Fong, based on a selection of modern Chinese paintings from the Robert H. Ellsworth Collection in The Metropolitan Museum of Art, explores the crucial period from the 1860s to about 1980, when Chinese painting was transformed into a modern expression of its classical heritage. Unlike classical Chinese painting dating from before 1860, which has commanded in-depth study from a learned and sophisticated audience in the West, modern Chinese painting has been little explored. The first comprehensive assemblage in the West of paintings on this subject, the Robert H. Ellsworth Collection comprises works in the classical Chinese medium of ink on paper and in the traditional formats of scrolls, album leaves, and fans."--BOOK JACKET.Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America, Inc. Made in Hong Kong: Studies in Popular Music serves as a comprehensive and thorough introduction to the history, sociology, and musicology of twentieth- and twenty-first century popular music in Hong Kong. The volume consists of essays by leading scholars in the field, and it covers the major figures, styles, and social contexts of popular music in Hong Kong. Each essay provides adequate context to allow readers to understand why the figure or genre under discussion is of lasting significance. The book is organized into four thematic sections: Cantopop, History and Legacy; Genres, Format, and Identity; Significant Artists; and Contemporary Cantopop.

"Sullivan presents a wealth of material that has never before appeared in a Western language. I expect it will be the standard book on twentieth-century Chinese art for the foreseeable future."--Julia F. Andrews, author of "Painters and Politics in the People's Republic of China" "A most sympathetic and useful guide to twentieth-century Chinese art. Long the leading scholar on the subject, Professor Sullivan has presented a lucid account of a most dramatic chapter in Chinese art in a complex interplay of aesthetics, politics, cultural, and social history."--Wen C. Fong, Princeton University "So much of China's art in the twentieth century has to do with artistic (and political) ideas from the West that it is appropriate that one of its first comprehensive histories should be written by a Western scholar--especially one who has known personally many of China's leading artistic figures of the last fifty years. Not only does Professor Sullivan tell the complex story of twentieth century China art with lucidity and style, his learned text is also illuminated with witty anecdotes and incisive observations that can only come from an insider."--Johnson Chang (Chang Tson-zung), Director, Hanart Tz Gallery, Hong Kong
