CONNECT: COLLEGE READING is an intermediate-level product for reading levels 8-10. It builds confidence by showing students that the skills needed to become stronger readers are skills they use daily. With popular media as a springboard, the authors show them how thinking skills used while watching television can easily transfer to reading.

Reading is a foundational learning activity for college-level courses. Assigned readings prepare you for taking notes during lectures and provide you with additional examples and detail that might not be covered in class. Also, according to research, readings are the second most frequent source of exam questions (Cuseo, Fecas & Thompson, 2007). ...

Choice A is the best answer. The author uses the phrase mainly to introduce a topic discussed at length in the second paragraph (lines 11 – 25)—namely, the growing connection Ethan sees himself forming with Mattie over the course of many evening walks during which they share similar feelings for the wonders of the natural world. In the context of the passage, the phrase evokes an image of ...
