

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

In re: Special Proceedings

Misc. No. 01-47-T

ORDER GRANTING PETITION FOR EARLY TERMINATION OF PROBATION AND HOME DETENTION

On December 9, 2004, this Court sentenced James Taricani to a six-month term of probation that included a special condition of home confinement and indicated to Mr. Taricani that it would consider termination after the expiration of four months if Mr. Taricani fully complied with both the letter and spirit of the conditions of his home confinement.

Mr. Taricani, now, has moved for early termination. No objection has been filed by the Special Prosecutor and the supervising probation officer reports that Mr. Taricani has fully complied with all conditions and the probation officer recommends that his petition be granted.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that Mr. Taricani be discharged from supervision effective April 9, 2005, and that the proceedings in this case, thereupon, be terminated.

By Order

Deputy Clerk

ENTER:

Ernest C. Torres
Chief Judge

Date: April 6, 2005