On 5/30/06 at approximately 1356 hrs, I responded to CPD Headquarters for a report.

Upon arrival, I met with Adriana Pagano. She stated that she resides at 10 Daisy Court and the neighbor that she was having problems with lives at 16 Daisy Court. She explained that her children along with other neighborhood children play in the road. Sometimes the kids ball goes into the yard of 16 Daisy Court. She went on to explain that the gentleman there later identified as Nicholas Gianquitti has made a formal complaint before regarding the ball going into his yard. Adriana indicated that Nicholas appears to watch the kids through his window which she feels is somewhat strange. She indicated that she did not know if he's doing this to protect his property or if he has some other type of interest with the children. She did explain that he does have a fourteen year-old daughter and a wife but that she does not see them that much. Adriana stated that Nicholas had the ball in his yard, picked it up and went into the house with it not giving it back to the kids right away. She indicated that with that particular incident, Nicholas's wife had to come home and give the ball back to the children. Adriana explained that she just wanted a report on file as to the strange activity as far as Nicholas watching the children while they are outside playing.
