

SUPPORT GOVERNOR CARCIERI'S VETO OF CHILD CARE BILL

Governor Donald L. Carcieri has vetoed legislation designed to enable independent child care providers to form a union and collectively bargain with the state as if they were public employees. Forty one members of the House of Representatives and twenty three Senators voted in favor of this legislation. Governor Carcieri is asking you to call those Representatives and Senators to ask them to support his veto. Please help Governor Carcieri protect Rhode Island's children, families and taxpayers.
