

JAGUAR JOURNAL

June 12, 2003

Volume 2

Special Edition: Eighth Grade Keepsake

Inside this Issue:

Shadow.....4

Farewell Letter from Mrs. Fagnoli..5

So Long, Farewell6

Oh Baby!.....9

Quotes.....12

Thanks, Merci, Gracias.....14

Let's Face It.....15

Poetry.....17

Those Babies are.....20

Moving In

Amanda Kee and Alycia Bedrosian stepping in at JHS.

Your Worst Fear - The High School Principal

By: Alycia Bedrosian and Amanda Kee

Students' worst fears are sometimes being sent to the principal's office to face the meanest, grouchiest, and scariest looking person in school. But that's not what the principal is like at Johnston High School.

In a recent interview with Dr. Liz Mantelli, the Johnston High School Principal, we discovered the secrets behind JHS's success. So for all you students who are shaking in your booties of fright because you're afraid to go to the high school, these things might change your mind.

Johnston High School is full of students who are aiming high for success. According to Dr. Mantelli, "I want students to aim high. The best way for a school to operate is for people to be respectful to each other."

Since Dr. Mantelli is brand new to the High School, having

(Continued on page 3)